

HEADTEACHER'S BLOG

"Two fantastic pieces of art were submitted to the Art department this week. Louie Ray-Tate, a Year 8 student, submitted homework in response to a brief to create an abstract head using 3D materials. They have been studying the artist Naum Gabo and Cubism. Louie-Ray completed the homework using card, a glue-gun and spray paint. Olivia Taylor, Year 11, completed an excellent ceramic cupcake using a range of techniques such as coiling. It has been developed by looking at the artist Anna Barlow. Glazes were applied to the top and acrylic paint has picked out the details of the bottom. Both of these students will be the first recipients of the Headteacher's positive referral for the week."
